

Quechan Indian Day Celebration

November 19 & 20, 2021

Economic Development Administration

Notice Date: October 25, 2021

ATTENTION TRIBAL VENDORS

BOOTH RESERVATION APPLICATION FOR QUECHAN INDIAN DAY CELEBRATION IS NOW AVAILABLE

EDA will be accepting Booth Reservation Applications on October 26, 2021 beginning at 8:00 a.m.

The Booth Reservation Application will be on a first-come, first-serve basis.

All vendors must be present to complete a Booth Reservation Application, which includes the opportunity to pick his/her booth.

All Tribal Vendors must possess a Business Permit valid through the last day of this event.

All food vendors must possess a valid Food Handler Certificate. Please visit the free online IHS Food Handler training at <https://www.ihs.gov/foodhandler> to obtain one.

Vendor Fees:

$50, including a $30 deposit, for food and arts & crafts vendors

$200, including a $100 deposit, for fireworks vendors

Payable by check or money order

All vendors must practice the COVID guidelines such as wearing masks & gloves, keeping distance, and if ill or may have symptoms they are not to be selling, etc.

All vendors may sell refreshments including sodas

All other rules appear on the Booth Reservation Application

EDA appreciates your cooperation in this regard. Should you have any questions, please contact us at

EDA Office (760) 572-5270