Wondering who's eligible for Job Corps?

For 16- to 24-year-olds* ready to work toward a successful future, Job Corps' free education and career training program is a great place to start.

*Offers hands-on career training and education at no cost to students

*Serves low-income young people ages 16 through 24 years

*Has 126 locations across the country.

*Helps change lives!

Job Corps offers hands-on training in more than 100 career technical training areas, including Automotive Maintenance and Light Repair, Carpentry, Office Administration, and Welding. All career technical training areas are aligned with industry credentials and are designed to meet the requirements of today's careers. Job Corps also offers Advanced Training for students who want to take their education to the next level. Job Corps graduates have the support they need to start a successful career, go to community college, or join the military. Counselors assist students with their resumes and job search, and connect them with housing and transportation options and child care services.
