• Advance in hire, Recruitment incentive may be authorized.
• Relocation, Retention incentive is not authorized.

Federal law requires removal of federal law enforcement officers convicted of felonies. The Omnibus Federal Budget Bill for Fiscal Year 2001 (Public Law 106-554) includes a provision that imposes requirements on federal agencies, including DOD installations, that employ law enforcement officers. The provision, which is in Section 639 of PL 106-554, requires agencies to remove law enforcement officers from employment as law enforcement officers if they are convicted of a felony after the law takes effect. Felony convictions that occurred before the new law takes effect are not included in this requirement; only new convictions will trigger the requirement. The law went into effect on January 20, 2001.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- In order to qualify, you must meet the experience requirements described below. You will receive credit for all qualifying experience, including volunteer experience. Your resume must clearly describe your relevant experience.
- You must meet the experience requirements below:
- Specialized Experience: One year of specialized experience which includes experience resolving or conducting preliminary investigations of incidents related to law enforcement. This definition of specialized experience is typical of work performed at the next lower grade/level position in the federal service (GS-07).
- Some federal jobs allow you to substitute your education for the required experience in order to qualify. For this job, you must meet the qualification requirement using experience alone -- no substitution of education for experience is permitted.

HOW YOU WILL BE EVALUATED:
You will be evaluated on the basis of your level of competency in the following areas:

- Apprehension/Arrest
- Emergency Response
- Investigating and Reporting
- Violation Detection

HOW YOU WILL BE EVALUATED:
Your resume:

- Your resume may be submitted in any format and must support the specialized experience described in this announcement.
- For qualifications determinations your resume must contain hours worked per week, the dates of employment, and experience (i.e., HRS per week and month/year to month/year or month/year to present/experience). If your resume does not contain this information, your application may be marked as incomplete and you may not receive consideration for this position.
- If your resume includes a photograph or other inappropriate material or content, it will not be used to make qualification determinations and you may not be considered for this vacancy.
- For additional information see: What to see in your resume https://www.usajobs.gov/Help/faq/application/documents/resume/what-to-include/
